Anyone who has ever taken a creative writing course or picked up a book on the subject has surely encountered the famous refrain: show, don't tell! I certainly got that comment frequently enough during my days as a . CW major at the University of Colorado. What I wasn't so frequently told, though, was what exactly that dire entreaty meant.

We describe how we can train this model in a deterministic manner using standard backpropagation techniques and stochastically by maximizing a variational lower bound. We also show through visualization how the model is able to automatically learn to fix its gaze on salient objects while generating the corresponding words in the output sequence.
