Christian views on slavery are varied both regionally and historically and spiritually. Slavery in various forms has been a part of the social environment for much of Christianity's history, spanning well over eighteen centuries.

Christian views on slavery - Wikipedia

Historically, slavery has been supported or opposed on religious grounds. Saint Augustine described slavery as sinful and against God's intention, and some Popes denounced slavery from the 15th century onwards. In the eighteenth century the abolition movement took shape among Christians across the globe, but various denominations continued to be pro-slavery into the 19th century.
