

social capital and peace pdf

Social capital broadly refers to those factors of effectively functioning social groups that include such things as interpersonal relationships, a shared sense of identity, a shared understanding, shared norms, shared values, trust, cooperation, and reciprocity. However, the many views of this complex subject make a single definition difficult. The term generally refers to (a) resources, and ...

These characteristics of human capital prompted Harlan Cleveland, former President of the World Academy of Art and Science, to observe that "the only limits" are the limits to imagination and creativity" (18). They led Aurelio Peccei, founder of the Club of Rome, to argue that human capital is the most underutilized of all forms of capital (19). ...
